

For five generations, since 1887, our family has taken great pride in farming the rich prairie soils overlooked by Pilot Knob, a local high point near Oneida, Illinois. Our prized crop - premium, hull-less popcorn - is grown with special care and passion for a more natural taste and better texture. Most importantly, because of the thin, soft hulls, you can make new memories in complete comfort...no toothpicks required! For the hull(less) story, visit pkcpop.com.
