Leadership New York
Tuition & Scholarship FAQs

Tuition
Tuition for LNY is $6,500 for 175+ hours of rigorous leadership development training, individual and small group coaching, and access to Coro alumni and cross-program events. You will join one of the most diverse and influential leadership community in New York City!

Scholarships
Scholarships ranging from $500-$3,500 are available, with special consideration for applicants paying out of pocket and with the highest need relative to the request pool.

We are committed to building cohorts that reflect the demographics of New York City and in strengthening historically marginalized groups in leadership roles. Do not let financial concerns prevent you from applying; we are actively seeking a cohort of multiple perspectives and will work with you to identify possible steps.

Scholarships are made available by alumni donations. We are grateful for their generosity and dedication to paying it forward.

Process:
You will have the option to request scholarship assistance on the application. If you mark “yes,” you are asked to fill out the basic information of your monthly sources of income and expenses. Scholarship request information is hidden during the selection process, and it is not weighed in considering you for the program. Your information will be kept confidential.

External scholarship resource:
If you are a nonprofit professional, you may be eligible for the TD Bank nonprofit training resource fund. Click here to learn more.

Please note, we are not an accredited institution; scholarships or tuition reimbursements with this requirement will not apply.

Payment Plans
The first payment is due by mid-August and full payment by the midpoint retreat in January. Payment plan dates between August and the midpoint retreat can be personalized. All participants will be able to select their payment plan when they receive acceptance notification email on June 21. Payment plans for organizations are generally not available.

With the exception of an unexpected medical emergency, if you leave or are asked to withdraw from the program you (not your employer) are still responsible for any remaining balance.
