

TIMELINE QUESTIONNAIRE

Selling a home can bring up a lot emotions and memories. To make it easier, fill out this questionnaire going over questions to figure out your timeline, concerns, and improvements.

We recommend filling it out yourself if you're going to own the home yourself. If you're going to own with another person, we recommend filling it out together.

Good luck and have fun!

Are you thinking about moving?

Will you need to sell your current home in a specific timeframe in order to get a new home?

When is your acceptable closing date?

Have you made any updates to your home with proof that will add value?

If so, what updates have you made?

Will you have special showing instructions?

How old are your appliances and are they gas or electric?

Who are your utility providers?

What are your concerns about selling and finding a new home?

What do you love most about your home?

What are your favorite memories?

What will you miss?
