

A WORD FROM THE C.O.

Don Davis Squadron/ALM Colleagues, Here we are again in our final push and I'm leading it through our reunion registration deadline. As a gentle reminder, our MCAA Don E. Davis Squadron reunion is fast approaching. Our gathering this March 19th – 22nd in Jacksonville, NC at the Hilton Garden Inn and Marine Corps Air Station New River is sure to be a momentous event that rivals our Pensacola gig last year. Thanks to the tireless efforts of Gale Rodgers, Rob McCutcheon and LtCol Bill Slack (our host), it will include many of the traditions that our most seasoned members are accustomed, with additions that involve the Assistant Deputy Commandant for Aviation as our Guest of Honor; our full participation stake with HQMC ASL, MALS-26 & 29 and the leadership participation of the Center for Naval Aviation & Technical Training (CNATT).

As with the past two reunions we will be having a live and silent auction of items our members donate. So PLEASE consider donating a nice item for the auction. All proceeds will go to the Pete Freeman Scholarship Fund!

Please join us in Jacksonville this coming March for an agenda packed with rich Marine tradition; the recognition of our recent Pete Freeman Scholarship recipients and acknowledgment of aviation logisticians past and present, as well as many lively professional and social interactions.

I look forward to seeing you in Jacksonville, NC. Be there and be part of it. For more information go to www.avlogmarines.org and on Facebook at: MCAA Don Davis Squadron under "Community." To email with questions or concerns to Gale Rodgers: mcaadondavisavlogsquadron@gmail.com. Or call Gale at: 906-439-5130 (h), 229-296-5420 (c).
