

Meet Lizarre

Age 7

Lizarre is a 7 year old African American male. Lizarre is very athletic and loves to play football and juggle. He also likes to play with Legos, put puzzles, and board games. Lizarre does well in school and he loves to read. Lizarre perseveres in everything that he does., as he is a determined young man. He has a pleasant demeanor and he is hopeful about his future. When asked what kind of family he would like, Lizarre describes a two parent family with two older siblings, who are active outdoors and support him in his activities. Lizarre would thrive in an environment that allows him to pursue his interests and introduces him to new activities. He would benefit from a family who has a structured environment and encourages him to build positive relationships.