OHIO YOUTH & GOVERNMENT SEMINAR

Program Profile

Overview

YLA's Ohio Youth & Government Seminar is a program that will bring middle school students from all sections of the state to Columbus, OH while the Legislature is in session.

Program Description

YLA's Youth & Government Seminar provides an opportunity for middle school students throughout the state to learn more about state government by observing it and interacting with its leaders.

Each school may bring as many students as they wish, but registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. One chaperone for each eight students is required.

Schools may select their representatives according to locally developed criteria. The program begins on a Tuesday morning and operates through Thursday afternoon. During each session, participants observe the operation of various branches of state government, question its leaders, interact with media representatives and lobbyists, and generally gain an understanding of the function and operation of government by experiencing it.

During the seminars, participants stay at the Sheraton Columbus Hotel at Capitol Square (across from the Ohio Statehouse). All government offices will be within walking distance of Capitol Square.

For Ohio Youth and Government Seminar 2019, YLA is fortunate to be partnering with the Thomas J. and Marjorie S. Gray Foundation to offer sponsorships to attend the second annual YGS. This is a wonderful opportunity to give your students the experience of observing their state government at work and to interact with government officials.

Please see the billing sheet for 2019 pricing.

The non-scholarship rates would normally be:
Total fee per person for the program is $210.00 (student or adult)
Adults have option of a private room for $360.00.

Rationale and General Objectives

YLA's Youth & Government Seminars have as their primary purpose the growth of cognitive and affective functions associated with effective citizenship. This program seeks to increase the likelihood that participants will achieve the objectives specified in the middle school Government/Civics Content Standards and Objectives.

YLA's Youth & Government Seminars are rooted in a belief that students learn best by doing and being actively involved. The seminars include carefully sequenced activities which provide students an opportunity to learn about the operation of government of the State of Ohio. Students engage in role plays of a mock trial and a mock legislature, small and large group discussions, and a variety of other activities designed to ensure that each student participates. Students are encouraged to prepare for their trip to Columbus by collecting information about topics of current concern in the state. This information provides a basis for posing questions to the numerous governmental representatives students meet.

OHIO YOUTH & GOVERNMENT SEMINAR

Student and Teacher Selection Procedure

As long as students meet the established local criteria, the ultimate responsibility to select students rests with the school. A formal selection procedure may be instituted. For example, selection may be based upon completion of essays on a topic such as "The Value of Law in America." Likewise, a short test on Ohio Government or juvenile law could be administered. Whatever procedure is used, all students are to have an equal opportunity to participate.

Schools also have the option of allowing students to pay their own way to attend. There is no limit to the number of students any school may send. The program is open to ALL interested students. Homeschool, private, and charter school students are also encouraged to attend.

CRITERIA FOR STUDENT SELECTION

1. Is currently a middle school student.
2. Desires to learn more about state government, law-making, and law enforcement.
3. Will thoroughly prepare before coming to the seminar.
4. Will share seminar experiences with other students in home school.
5. Is interested and willing to participate.
6. Shows evidence of good citizenship in the school and community.

"It has been our experience that a child who has an outstanding attitude and is eager to learn and participate, rather than be a child who "scores the highest" on a test, is the student who most benefits from our program; thus, teacher input should have high priority in student selection."

CRITERIA FOR TEACHER SELECTION

1. Agrees to transport county representatives to Columbus, OH.
2. Agrees to chaperone county representatives at all times while in Columbus.
3. Agrees to participate in all seminar activities.
4. Will share information from seminar with other teachers in neighboring schools.
5. Will assist student representatives with presentations to home schools.
6. Is currently teaching and/or is enthusiastic about working with our program and the children.

CODE OF CONDUCT: YLA FAMILY OF PROGRAMS (Ohio-West Virginia Youth Leadership Association)

YLA, Fall Conference, Youth & Government Seminars, Youth in Government, Model United Nations, Horseshoe, Cave Lake

YLA programs work to build responsible life-long good citizens of character who work to build better homes, schools and communities for all.

Participation in all parts of a YLA program shall be maintained on an intellectual and productive level. A level of conduct is expected of all participants (youth, advisor and staff) that requires self-control, individual decision-making, responsibility and adherence to a dress code that is appropriate to each YLA program.

Responsible YLA conduct must be the concern of each participant for the responsibilities and rights of every individual and that of the group. Being responsible for one's own behavior at all times is a necessary part of self-government. It is essential that all students, advisors and staff act responsibly to ensure that their own conduct and attitude are beneficial not only to themselves and all other participants but also to ensure the continuation of the YLA program. By choosing to participate, it is expected that each individual has read, understands and agrees to follow the Code of Conduct while attending any conference sponsored by the YLA.

All participants share equally the responsibility for their actions when violations of the Code of Conduct are witnessed. Those who decide to be present when a violation occurs shall by their own choice, be considered a participant in the violation. In this program there are no "innocent bystanders."

Each person must recognize that their failure to carry out the Code of Conduct may lead to their own and perhaps their total delegation's dismissal from the program.

Each person & delegation is to support the purpose & procedures of the YLA program they are attending in both spirit, action & work for the success of the program for everyone.

In general, the behavior that is expected can be summarized in these four (4) points:

1) Treat others as one wants to be treated. 2) Do not do anything that hurts another person, place, thing. 3) Do not do anything that could potentially bring harm to another person, place, or thing. 4) Do not fail to do something that would help others, make the place we are using cleaner, safer and a better experience for all.

More specifically, this Code of Conduct has been developed to identify the type of personal behavior that is consistent with the purpose of YLA programs. The items in the Code are based upon performance and are designed to protect everyone involved including the welfare of these programs for future generations. Participation in a YLA program indicates personal acceptance of this Code of Conduct.

Individuals, delegations and Advisors are to carry out the Code. Where necessary, YLA Staff will assist and reserve the right (discretion) for the "final say" as these programs are YLA programs.
