Activists and Angels at the St. Elizabeth’s Guild Luncheon
St. Elizabeth’s Guild honored eleven Volunteer Activists at the annual luncheon on October 23, 2014. Proceeds of this wonderful event are dedicated to Catholic Charities programs serving our youth, including St. John the Baptist Head Start, Independent Living Skills Program and Padua House, demonstrating once again, that the members of the Guild are truly angels to so many in need in our community. Many thanks to the Guild for their continued support and congratulations to this year’s Volunteer Activists, pictured above. Steve Gleason, with (in back from left to right) P.K. The Engine that Organizes Love
Recently, I attended the Annual Gathering for Catholic Charities USA in Charlotte, NC. Catholic Charities from across the country convened to advance our work, strategize about poverty reduction, and celebrate our shared identity. The theme of the conference was “Setting the Pace. Changing the Course.” It is an action oriented theme and one that our local agency takes to heart. Our work must set the pace for positive change in our world.

A surprise speaker via video message opened the conference - none other than our Holy Father, Pope Francis himself! In a candid message, he spoke directly to those in ministry with Catholic Charities in the U.S. His friendly and pastoral tone struck my heart and brought me close to tears. Seated at his desk from the Vatican, he spoke to us as if he were truly in the room with us. Pope Francis thanked us for our service but more importantly, he challenged us to go out into our world to serve the least of our brothers and sisters. “You are the engine that organizes love” Pope Francis remarked. “See leadership as service, practice mercy... Keep the poor before you in all that you do” He again reminded us that he would rather have a Church that is dirty from being out in the world helping those in need, than a Church that is sickly from remaining cloistered.

Upon returning from the conference, I have encouraged our staff and board members to listen to Pope Francis’ message and share it. His message is directed to those working in Catholic Charities, but really can be applied to all of us. We are all part of the engine that organizes love and good works in our world. Engines only work when all parts work in harmony - they are made up of many moving parts that in turn move us forward in the call to serve those in need. Through our interactions with one another, we must challenge ourselves to act courageously and justly, and keep the momentum of love going! You can watch and listen to Pope Francis’ message he shared with us here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mzxH52JbCA0. I hope this message will inspire you to join us as we continue to “Set the Pace” and “Change the Course” in our local communities and our world.

As we approach the holiday season and we begin to count our blessings, please be sure to pray for those in ministry with us, those being served by us and those who support our work. I count you, a supporter of Catholic Charities, as one of our many blessings. Thank you for being part of our mission to organize love in our world, our archdiocese and amongst one another. May you and your family be blessed this holiday season!

Small Blessings Make the Holiday Season Bright

F or many families served by Catholic Charities Archdiocese of New Orleans, the holiday season is made brighter by the generosity of Holiday "Angels" right here in our community. Through our Thanksgiving Food Basket and Christmas Gift Drive, the holiday wish lists of families being served by Catholic Charities’ programs are fulfilled by individuals, families and local businesses who know that a little help at the holidays can make a big difference.

"When you think about if you had to choose if you are going to get groceries or go to the doctor or buy Christmas gifts, this kind of help really makes a difference," said Cheryl Cables, a long-time donor to our Christmas Gift Drive with her volunteer group, the DEB Homemakers Club of Metairie. In 2004, she launched the Drive with her volunteer group, the DEB Homemakers Club looks forward to helping fulfill a family’s Christmas Wish List every year at this time.

"We like giving through the Christmas drive because we know exactly where the gift is going," Cheryl says. "By the grace of God, we have been blessed. We feel it is our calling to help those less fortunate and make Christmas a little happier for them."

The club members will take up a collection or host an auction or a community sale in order to raise the funds to purchase all the items on their family’s list. They enjoy putting together this annual donation, and although they feel there is little stress to putting this together, they believe when everyone does something small, big changes can be made.

"What you give doesn't have to be large - a small token from a lot of people makes a huge difference," Cheryl said. "It's a great way and an easy way to get involved in the spirit of Christmas! Thank you to the many individuals, families, community groups and businesses who join us in this effort year after year! You are truly a blessing to our families in need at this special time of year."

As of November 1, 2014, our volunteers have helped us raise $868,317 to support the programs and services of Catholic Charities through the Archbishop Hannan Community Appeal (AHCA)—that’s 54% to our $1.6 Million goal! We’re more than halfway there and we couldn’t do it without your prayers and support! Please continue to pray for our volunteers and the people served through the many services and programs and our annual campaign supports!

AHCA Fast Facts

Catholic Men’s Clubs Unite for ILSP

Every year, the New Orleans Catholic Men’s Club Association (NOCMCA) brings together Men’s Clubs from across our archdiocese for a day of family fun and fundraising through their annual softball tournament. When Mark Plaideau, current president of NOCMCA, saw a report by WPMI-TV’s Bill Capo on independent Living Skills Program’s (ILSP) need for donations to help teens transition out of foster care, he knew where he wanted proceeds from this year’s tournament to go.

“Many of us didn’t know about this program and didn’t realize the challenges these foster kids face,” said Doug Tillman, Board Member and Past President of NOCMCA.

"NOCMCA is so very proud and humbled to help with such a worthy cause," NOCMCA donated $3,000 raised through the softball tournament to the Independent Living Skills Program as well as a van full of household items like pots, pans and blankets for the young adults in the program! NOCMCA is currently planning their 2015 softball tournament. For more information on NOCMCA and how to get involved, contact Doug Tillman at 504-208-0125.

Meet Catholic Charities!

Meet Donald Molzone, Driver for Food For Families/Food For Seniors! Donald has served with this Catholic Charities program for 3 years, first as a food box packer and now as a driver.

Meet Catholic Charities Adoption!

November is Adoption Month

Celebrating Adoption

Please join us in remembering birth parents, adoptive parents, individuals that are adopted, and everyone that is touched by adoption this November during National Adoption Awareness Month!

Over the years Adoption Services of Catholic Charities Archdiocese of New Orleans has experienced many changes in regard to domestic and international adoption. One prospective adoptive family, Shannon and Kevin, contacted Adoption Services in 2006 for adoption home study services to prepare to adopt a child from China. They anticipated receiving a referral for a child within a year. However, China began to face many changes and families began to experience longer waits for referrals. No one knew how long these delays would be, but Shannon and Kevin remained committed to the child that would one day call them mommy and daddy. Adoption Services updated their adoption home study every year with hopes of a referral coming very soon.

Finally, in January 2014, the news that Shannon and Kevin had anticipated since beginning the home study process in 2006 was received – their child could come home with them! In May, 2014, Shannon and Kevin traveled to China where they met their daughter Grace. Yes, 8 years after Adoption Services began the original adoption home study, Shannon and Kevin became parents to sweet, beautiful Grace!

Kevin and Shannon share that they feel very blessed to be Grace’s parents and know the moment they saw her that God picked the perfect child for them.

Since January Adoption Services has placed 10 infants with adoptive families, and more than 400 individuals touched by adoption have received direct services through the program. Adoption Services of Catholic Charities offers placement and assistance with both domestic and international adoption with support and services for both birthparents and families considering adoption.
