

Sampling of the Evanston History Center Toy Collection

Accession Number	Provenance	Date	Medium	Title of Item
1999.29.6	Catharine Waugh and Frank H. McCulloch of 2236 Orrington Ave. traveled around the world in 1932 and 1936, these dolls were purchased on these trips.  Doll is carved of wood and dressed in simple dress with an apron and American Farm style bonnet.	c.1930	wood, cloth (clothing)	Doll
1970.76.4	This doll was given to Sue Kinsley Hansen by Lord's department store when she won a contest for best costume when Santa Claus came to Evanston in 1939.	1939	plastic, fabric	Doll
1989.52.5	Rubber stamp set: contains every letter of the alphabet except "T". Also has every number, 0-9; 23 miscellaneous circus stamps featuring animals and circus people; 7 miscellaneous symbols, such as "$" and a hand pointing up.		rubber, wood	stamping and painting set
1970.5.2	Figurines were sent from China to the donor in 1920 by Katherine Putman, who was Episcopalian Deaconess of Shanghai China		pottery	Figurine, Chines pottery
1980.40b	Box for "Tom Tinker." Tinker Toys were created by Charles H. Pajeau in Evanston, IL		cardboard	Tinkertoy box, "Tom Tinker"
1983.43.4b	Tinker-Go-Round was featured in SPINNING WHEEL MAGAZINE in article written by donors, Nov-Dec. 1980. Tinker Toys were created by Charles H. Pajeau in Evanston, IL	c1925	cardboard	Tinkertoy box, "Tinker-Go-Round"
1983.43.6a	Multi-colored action toy, has moveable arms and legs. Ballerina holds a jump rope. Toy has a fringe beige skirt. Tinker Toys were created by Charles H. Pajeau in Evanston, IL	c1925	wood, metal, string	Tinkertoy, "Tip-Toe-Tinker"
1986.2	Donor and donor's husband worked for the Toy Tinkers for many years. Belle is Tom Tinker's sister. Tinker Toys were created by Charles H. Pajeau in Evanston, IL.	c1920	wood, rope	"Belle Tinker"
1983.43.6b		c1925	cardboard	Tip-Toe-Tinker box
2003.7	Tinkertoy, executive office kit. Kit includes small set of toys and book about toys, which included many photos from the Evanston Historical Society archives.	2002	wood and plastic	Tinkertoy, executive office kit
1988.10.1	Red, blue and white cardboard cannister of "Easy Tinkertoy" with construction pieces inside: 8 cardboard wind-blades; 13 sticks; 5 wooden misc.; 6 spools. Outside of cannister has drawings of construction sets	N.D.	Cardboard, metal, wood	"Easy Tinkertoy"
2009.6.1	Model train car of the C&NW RR/RTA Passenger Car	N.D.	Plastic, Metal	Train
2009.18	1 "Toycrete" booklet, 1 bag of cement, metal pieces in box, tied together. Item was sold at the Chandlers Store in Evanston. Chandler Davis was the last owner of the Chandlers Store.	1916	Cardboard, metal, cement	Construction Set, "Toycrete"
2008.7	Given to donor by a friend, donor brought to EHC for collection. First Night Evanston developed Evanstonopoly, a customized version of the 1930s board game Monopoly, to ensure that the show will go on at their annual New Year's Eve celebration.	2006	Cardboard, plastic	Evanstonopoly
1982.22.1	Child's toy snake made of wood painted black. Flexible moves by multiple joints. Belonged to Mrs. Dawes when she was a child, given to Vifginia Cragg who gave it to EHS.	1870	Wood Leather	Animal, "Toy Snake"
1982.22.2a b	A: log cabin play house wodden construction set box and contents, label is printed on outside of box by the Claremont Manufacturing Co. Claremont N.H. Box is decorated with simple design on 3 sides of box, contents consist of 56 construction pieces. Belonged to Caro Blymer Dawes when she was a child	1870	Wood Metal	Construction Set, Wooden
1989.77.7	Toy lion made of real fur; has place for key so it winds up and moves. Belonged to Dawes Children.	1905	Fur, cord, metal, glass	Animal, stuffed (Mechanical Lion)
1989.77.16	Elephant on metal wheels with ring on back and has button eyes. Belonged to Dawes Children	c. 1914	Metal, fabric, exceloior	Animal, stuffed (Elephant)
1987.93.6	Multi-colored label, contents include two models, 41 natural wooden spools, 49 colored sticks and 2 plastic pieces. inker Toys were created by Charles H. Pajeau in Evanston, IL.	c1955	cardboard, wood, metal	Toy, Tinkers (Canister of Tinkertoys)
1989.34.3	125 piece set. Contents include plastic sheels with 1/4" holes, discs, flat doughnuts, triangles, plastic caps, wooden sticks. inker Toys were created by Charles H. Pajeau in Evanston, IL		wood, metal, plastic	Toy, Tinkers (Tinker Zoo and Other Things Too)