

Hopi Agriculture and Climate Resilience Workshop
Thursday, March 14, 2019 - 9:00 am – 3:00 pm
Hopi Wellness Center Conference Room
Kykotsmovi, AZ

AGENDA

9:00 am	Welcome and Prayer	Harold Joseph, Board President, Hopi Conservation District
9:15 am	Introduction and Agenda	Susan Sekaquaptewa Assistant Agent, UofA Cooperative Extension Hopi Tribe Office
9:30 am	Native Waters, Arid Lands Background and Current Status	Dr. Maureen McCarthy, Desert Research Institute
10:00 am	Looking Forward, Then Back: Projected Climate Change Impacts on the Hopi Tutsqua, and Current Drought Conditions	Dr. Kyle Bocinsky, DRI, CCAC, and UM
10:45 am	Breakout Discussion: How has drought affected our community? What do we need to do to prepare for the future?	Facilitated by NWAL team Three groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Ranchers ● Irrigated growers ● Dryland farmers
11:45 am	Lunch and Presentations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Summary of weather station installation and training (Bocinsky) ● 2019 Livestock Forage Program (Johnson) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Dr. Kyle Bocinsky, DRI, CCAC, and UM ● Shelby Johnson, County Executive Director, Apache-Navajo-Gila Counties
1:00 pm	Hopi Drought Task Team Report	Clayton Honyumptewa, Director of Natural Resources, Hopi Tribe
1:30 pm	Rangeland Management Planning	Robbie Honani and the Hopi Rangeland Technicians
2:00 pm	Breakout Session: Implementing the Drought Management Plan and preparing for the future.	Facilitated by NWAL team Three groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Ranchers ● Irrigated growers ● Dryland farmers
2:50 pm	Closing Comments	Susan Sekaquaptewa
3:00 pm	Workshop Ends

