

LIONS AREA FIRST AID TRAINING ADULT GUIDERS, PATHFINDERS AND RANGERS 2019 - 2020

Lions Area is pleased to organize first aid courses every year for our Guiders, in addition we have organized additional Emergency First Aid training for Pathfinders. Rangers are welcome to join either the Guider or Pathfinder training sessions.

St. John Ambulance at their Mountain Highway location, 106 - 223 Mountain Highway, North Vancouver

In addition to the regular program offered, we have requested that the trainings be tailored for skills that could possibly be needed for all sorts of outdoor fun and adventure (eg. hikes, camps, burns, slips and falls, ticks etc.)

FEE PAYMENT - Districts have financial policies that help support training for Adult Members.

STEP 1

Ask your District Commissioner about both financial support and your responsibility for attendance once you have registered and the registration deadline has passed.

STEP 2

2) Register before the registration deadline (minimum 8/maximum 14)

Your District Commissioner will be advised that you have registered for first aid training. You are responsible for paying the fee or portion to your District (you do not pay St. John Ambulance). Your District will be invoiced for your fee.

Please Note: After the registration deadline, YOUR SPACE CANNOT BE CANCELLED but a substitution is welcome.
