Chief Science Program

Alden Central Schools has been selected to be a Pilot District in the Chief Science Officer Program which is sponsored by WNY STEM Hub and Siemens.

Chief Science Officers are destined to create a pipeline of diverse STEM leaders, foster communication and collaboration among CSOs, enrich school STEM culture and career awareness, and increase student voice in STEM conversations in the community.

The Chief 2019-2020 Science Officers from Alden are Katelyn Hucker – Grade 7, Kiersten Schindler – Grade 8, Maryanna Morrison – Grade 10 (Alternate), Charles Freeman – Grade 11, and Michael Frisciaro – Grade 11.
