

Chicago Pinot Days 2014 ~ Standouts in an Impressive Lineup

Small Vines Estate Cuvee Pinot Noir 2012 – Admittedly “flying under the radar”, wines from Paul Sloan, Vigneron, were delicious. I loved the Estate Cuvee from four different estate vineyards in Sonoma County. From whole cluster grapes, the aromatics were incredible and tastes were vibrant and deep with those rich red fruits and element of spice along with caramel notes. This wine had a silky texture which was mesmerizing. $55.
