

Are you interested in ...

- opening your home and your heart to an individual with an intellectual/developmental disability?
- an opportunity to include a person with a disability into your family life and community?
- teaching people new skills and assisting people in realizing their dreams, goals, and aspirations?
- assuring that people with special needs receive quality care and supports that make a difference?

If yes to the above, then we are interested in meeting with you!

COIS provides orientation, pre-certification training, team support, and financial reimbursement for candidates that become certified and contracted with our agency. We are interested in partnering with provider candidates that are patient, understanding, caring, and have high standards of excellence when it comes to care and support for people with special needs. COIS is interested in provider candidates who have experience in direct care and support to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and/or a closely related field. No state license required. Still Interested and want to learn more?
