Thirty-three Members of the Lodge served in various positions during the War, and each Member returned home safely as in the first World War. In the five years after this War, Lodge No. 22 had 91 Members.

Third Oldest Lodge

"Lodge No. 22 claims to be the third oldest Masonic Lodge in Pennsylvania in point of continuous existence, the oldest Lodge No. 4 in Philadelphia and the second oldest, Perkasie No. 1. Lodge No. 22 was chartered on the same day as Lodge No. 22. Lodge No. 22 further claims that the other Lodges which were organized prior to it, subsequently surrendered their warrants, and several of the older members, 29 and 39, have attended its meetings. Lodge No. 22 still has its possession of many of its old documents and furniture, including the warrant issued by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and all of the minutes beginning in 1817. Lodge No. 22 with close to 300 Members continued to be one of the most flourishing Masonic lodges in this section of the Commonwealth."

Our reception at the Airport in Havana was marked by the presence of the men of the Airport Lodge, the courtesy shown by the airport authorities, and the peculiar Caliño Band, which saluted us by playing the Cuban National anthem, and the embassy staff and the Cuban government officials, as well as the Cuban police force, and finally the Cuban National Anthem. We were, then, by arrangement, quickly seated in our party bus that would take us to the headquarters hotel, the Sevilla-Biltmore...

On Saturday evening an official reception of the Spanish Grand Lodge was held at the Ambos Mundos Hotel. In addition to the officers of the Grand Lodge of Cuba, the various lodge officers from the various districts were present on the stage. We first were entertained with a concert of Masonic music, and then a reading of the Masonic symbols to be understood by the officers of the Grand Lodge of Cuba and other Masons present. The Spanish Masonic addresses were delivered in Spanish, followed by the address of the Cuban member of our Lodge, who was greeted by Brother Charles M. Mineo, Deputy Grand Master of the Cuban Lodge, and then the address of Brother Robert C. Ray, the American Grand Lodge delegate.

Several months prior to the dedication of the new Temple, the Grand Lodge of Cuba wrote to the American Grand Lodge, requesting that our Grand Lodge send an official letter of congratulations. The letter was in the form of an official letter, addressed to the Grand Lodge of Cuba. That letter was followed by the dedication of the new Temple, using the Masonic symbols.

On the morning of Sunday, February 27th, our Grand Master, accompanied by Brother Charles M. Mineo, Deputy Grand Master of the Cuban Lodge, and Brother Robert C. Ray, American Grand Lodge delegate, arrived at the Havana Palacio del Gobierno to receive Brother Jose Maria Castro, concerning the establishment of the Grand Lodge of Cuba. Brother Jose Maria Castro, who was received from Brother Jose Maria Castro, concerning the establishment of the Grand Lodge of Cuba...

On Sunday evening, the Grand Lodge of Cuba was requested to present to the Grand Lodge of Cuba its original warrant of Lodge No. 103, and we were given an assurance that the original warrant would be returned to the Grand Lodge of Cuba in Havana, on Saturday, February 26th, and Sunday, February 27th, 1960: the occasion is one I shall long remember...
