4. Shemshak Lodge No. 531 and Frackville Port Lodge No. 574. The effective date of the merger is June 2 and the merged lodges will thereafter be known as Frackville Strickland Lodge No. 757.

6. Patton Lodge No. 656 and Coalport Lodge No. 574. The effective date of the merger is June 5 and the merged lodges will thereafter be known as Coalport Strickland Lodge No. 574.

The number of subordinate lodges under the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, as a result of the above mergers, is 558. The membership also approved a change in the name of a lodge at the June quarterly. The name of Solomon Oakdale Lodge No. 251 was officially changed to Solomon-Oakland-Fraternity Lodge No. 251.
Grand Master Issues Two New Decisions

The Grand Master has made two recent changes to the Digest of Decisions; one that establishes a minimum salary for lodge secretaries, and another that strengthens the ban on the involvement of Masons in activities of adult female organizations.

Noting the salary of the lodge secretary must be established, the Grand Master can no longer automatically fluctuate with the membership of the lodge. Grand Master William A. Carpenter added the following (as Section 14 of Article LXIII, Officers, Secretary, on page 103 of the Digest):

"A. A Secretary's salary must not be less than $300 per annum and may not be increased to more than $5 per member based on current membership.

"On submission of sufficient and merituous documentation from the By-laws, the Lodge can change the salary of a Lodge counterpart, signed by the Worshipful Master, the By-laws Committee of the Grand Lodge may recommend to the Grand Lodge the granting of an exemption from this rule.

A Secretary is entitled to be reimbursed by the Lodge for expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of his office. Such expenses, however, must be restricted and reported in accordance with the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service pertaining to expense accounts."

The decision regarding adult female organizations was strengthened because of complaints coming to the attention of the Grand Lodge that Masons have been taking part in or conducting the ceremonies conducted by those organizations.

Article XXXII, Section 4 on page 49 of the Digest of Decisions already provided for the attendance of Masons at dinners, banquets, entertainments, installations and inaugurations of adult female organizations. The language that has been added to the second paragraph of the decision (see underlined material) serves to remind Masons, particularly those engaged in the work of education, that they are not privileged to go beyond the simple matter of attendance.

The decision, in its entirety, is as follows:

"A. Members of lodges under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania will be permitted to attend meetings, dinners, banquets, entertainments, installations and similar occasions of adult female organizations, so long as they are not privileged to go beyond the simple matter of attendance."

GRAND MASTER'S RECORD AT 18 MONTHS

Grand Master William A. Carpenter continues to build an extraordinary record as he maintains his pledge to visit all the Blue Lodges in Pennsylvania.

Through July of 1985, 18 months into his first term as Grand Master, Carpenter has made official visits to 414 lodges. Overall, he has attended 348 separate events in a 528-day period.

He visits the Masonic Temple an average of twice a week to conduct the day to day business of the Grand Lodge before traveling to another part of the jurisdiction to attend an evening meeting.

He has attended 327 meetings at the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown, 31 sessions of the Pennsylvania Youth Foundation, and 50 activities relating to the youth groups, the DeMolay, Job’s Daughters and Rainbow for Girls.

He has met with the Grand Councils and the Grand Commandery five times each, and twice with the Grand Council of Knights Templar.

Grand Master Carpenter has already accepted 20 invitations from the Scottish Rite valley units in the state to attend 16 Shrine functions and nine sessions of the Tall Cedars.

"I believe it is important for a Grand Master to pay as much attention to the constituent bodies as possible," Bro. Carpenter has said, "we are all part of the same Masonic family and the more we communicate with each other the greater the degree of understanding we share."

The Grand Master has maintained the Masonic Council meetings established in 1983 by then Grand Master Bro. Samuel C. Williamson and they have proved to be an excellent forum for the exchange of information and ideas.

Grand Master Carpenter has flown more than 126,000 miles and driven another 54,000 miles in meeting the demands of his schedule. Important, he has been able thus far to share his Masonic experience with more than 70,000 Masons.

Plans Completed for September 14 Chapel Dedication

Plans have been completed for the dedication and the laying of the cornerstone of the new chapel under construction at the Masonic Homes, formerly the Patton Centre, to be dedicated on Saturday, September 14.

As this report was being prepared, the slate roof and redwood sills had been completed and work on the granules of small entrance porches on the sides was nearing completion.

Inside, the oak ceiling beams had been installed and work on the placement of bronze plaques in the lobby areas.

Forms were being constructed for the concrete walks that will lead from the front to the chapel.

The placing of bronze plaques and the dedication ceremonies are scheduled for September 14.

The cornerstone and dedication ceremonies are open to the general public and all Masons, their families and friends are welcome to attend.

All contributions will be acknowledged by bronze plaques or plaques. Gifts for the stilled glass window sections, for example, will be recognized on a bronze replica, cast at one-twelfth the size of the 20 by 40-foot construction.

 Interested persons are invited to contact the Office of the Grand Master at the Masonic Temple, One North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107.

Grand Master's Dinner at Adam's Mark
December Quarterly Communication at Philadelphia Marriott

The December Quarterly Communication of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania will be held at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, December 4, 1985 in the Grand Ballroom of the Philadelphia Marriott Hotel at City Line Avenue and Monument Road.

All Master Masons are welcome at communications of the Grand Lodge. You do not have to be a lodge officer or a Fast Past Master to attend.

The R.W. Grand Master, Bro. William A. Carpenter, has also invited all Masons to attend a dinner-dance Wednesday evening in the Grand Ballroom of the Adam's Mark Hotel, across the avenue from the Marriott.

You are invited to use the coupon that accompanies this article to order tickets, at $12.50 per person, to the Grand Master's Dinner Dance. Places will be reserved on a first-request basis.

The Grand Ballroom in the Adam's Mark will hold up to 1,000 persons for the dinner dance. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by entertainment and dancing.

The entertainment will be provided by The Challengers and the music for dancing will be provided by the Joe Martin Orchestra.

The officers of the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master's distinguished guests of Masonic bodies and other Masonic jurisdictions will be dressed formally for the dinner dance, as is the custom.

Formal dress is not required of others. A dark suit is acceptable.

Please note that early responses will have the greatest chance for success in securing dinner-dance reservations. Late requests will be returned promptly with a letter of regrets.

Each table in the Adam's Mark Ballroom will seat 10 persons. If a number of people expect to attend in a group, it is suggested that they be seated separately.

It has been necessary in recent years to reserve communications from Corinthian Hall in the Masonic Temple in Philadelphia because of overcrowding.

Corinthian Hall is designed to seat about 550 persons. The most recently completed addition, the June Quarterly held at North Hall, attracted more than 1,200 Masons.

The September Quarterly at Tamaqua in 1984 was attended by more than 2,200 Masons.

The problem is especially difficult at the December Quarterly Communication because almost all of the representations in the Grand Lodge from the 558 lodges in the state are expected to attend to cast votes during the election for Grand Lodge officers.

In the past, many representatives traveled hundreds of miles often making their first trip to the Grand Lodge, only to find themselves viewing the proceedings from a nearby room on closed-circuit television.

The Philadelphia Ballroom has more than enough space for everyone and has adequate room nearby for balloting. Those who expect to attend the morning session are invited to have lunch with the Grand Lodge officers in the hotel's Delaware Ballroom.

Tickets are required for the luncheon as one means of controlling who attends.

Please note that one section of the coupon on this page is for the luncheon. There is no charge for the meal, but a ticket will be required to gain entrance to the luncheon area.

All coupon request forms should be returned as soon as possible so that adequate preparations can be made for everyone's comfort and convenience.

In Memoriam...

The portrait of a deceased Past Grand Master is removed from the Benjamin Franklin Room, draped in black and displayed for a 30-day period in the Grand Foyer in the Masonic Temple in Philadelphia.

Earl F. Herold, who served the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania as Grand Master in 1964 and 1965, died May 19, 1986, at the age of 74, a resident of Butler, Butler County, Pennsylvania, the son of Henry F. and Lucille C. Herold.

He attended the grade schools in Centre Township, was graduated from West Sunbury Academy in Butler County, Pennsylvania, in 1906 and taught school in three different townships in Butler County for a period of four years. He was graduated from Duquesne City College in Pittsburgh in 1912 and was employed an Aviatus to the Secretary of the University Club of Pittsburgh, in June of 1914, he returned to Butler where he was employed by the Butler Savings and Trust Company and having served as Treasurer of the Institution, he was in 1923 elected as its Vice President and served as a Director.

During World War II, he acted as Supervisor in Economics in the War Training Courses of Pennsylvania State College Extension in the Counties of Armstrong, Beaver, Butler and Indiana. His work in this regard consisted of settling up schools and supervising the personal and the work of those schools. Further in his business life, he served as Secretary, Treasurer and Director of the Hecker Lime Stone Company located at Brackton, Pennsylvania. He also served as a Director of the People's Telephone Company of Butler and of the Butler County Merchants Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Brother Herold together with his brothers organized the Heold Dairy Company, a successful operation lasting over a period of seventeen years which was sold in 1934.

In 1915, he married Loyola McCandless, Mrs. Herold died July 1, 1948 after a marriage of thirty-three years. Of this marriage, two daughters were born—Lucille Herodowoff and Shirley Yeager.

Brother Herold was active as a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church of Butler and served his church in various capacities.

In Freemasonry, Brother Herold served as Worshipful Master of Butler Lodge No. 272 in 1926, as High Priest of Butler Chapter No. 275 in 1925, as Recorder of Butler Council No. 61 and of Lorraine Commandery No. 87 where he served as Commander in 1928 and as Grand Warden of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania. He was a life member of the New Castle Lodge of Perfection and a member of the other Scottish Rite Bodies in the Valley of New Castle, a member of Syria Temple, and as a Past President of the Veteran's Patrol in the year 1936.

Brother Herold was active in the constitution of William H. Miller Lodge No. 769 in Butler and served as advisor of Lorraine Chapter, Order of DeMolay of Butler.

Brother William E. Yeager, then Grand Master, appointed Brother Herold as District Deputy Grand Master for Masonic District 27 in the year 1951. He was elected as Right Worshipful Junior Grand Warden and served in that capacity in 1958 and 1959, as Right Worshipful Senior Grand Warden in 1960 and 1961, as Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master in 1962 and 1963 and as Right Worshipful Grand Master in 1964 and 1965.

In his initial address as Grand Master, Brother Herold pledged himself to administer the affairs of the Grand Lodge with a strict adherence to its unchangeable laws and to conduct the business of the Grand Lodge with all due regard to economy consistent with the dignity and high character of our Fraternity. His subsequent reports of the conduct of the office which he occupied attest to the fact that he was true to the pledge made when he was inducted into that office. In his concluding report as Grand Master, he wrote that he looked back on his two years in office with pride but also with misgivings. The pride was based on the thought that some progress had been made in Freemasonry in this Jurisdiction during his term of office. The misgivings, he wrote, were for the things that he would have liked to accomplish but which time and circumstances would not permit.

Brother Herold was ever an asset to the Craft and his presence at our Communications will be sorely missed.

—Brother John K. Young, R.W. Past Grand Master
The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania has established a Disaster Relief Fund to aid tornado victims in eastern and central Pennsylvania, including Allentown, Harrisburg, Carlisle, Philadelphia, and many other towns and villages.

At times the best laid plans do go wrong. At least two of the lodges had to be abandoned, with the result that some members could not attend the dinner. The Grand Master has been forced to abandon the plans to accommodate the dinner on June 26, 1986.

Disaster Relief Fund to Aid Tornado Victims

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, along with virtually all Masonic lodges in the state, has contributed funds to the relief effort. The lodge has pledged its support to the effort to restore the Statue of Liberty.

Grand Master William A. Carpenter announced in May of 1986 a goal of $200,000, representing a contribution of $1 per every Mason on the rolls in Pennsylvania as of December 27, 1985.

At the end of July, 14 months after the tornado, the fund received $230,000, the goal of the National Statue of Liberty Centennial celebration, the Masonic Lodge and the Masonic Order of Liberty, with special emphasis on the Masonic Order of Liberty.

The Grand Master has also extended the amounts and terms of loans in cases of extreme hardship. The Grand Master has been able to return the favor.

The hotel and building associations and others, who suffered a result of the storm, as a result.

The Grand Master has the discretion to approve loans up to $3,000, the period of almost a year, and at beach per cent on or before the due date thereof. 10 percent may also extend the amounts and terms of loans in cases of extreme hardship.

"The giving of help, and assistance, and charity is not a Masonic duty. I cannot ignore it," the Grand Master said.

Early requests for loans were processed within a week. At a meeting, more than $100,000 had been forwarded to disaster relief.

The application involves total losses averaging more than $40,000 per family. Their immediate needs for clothing, food, shelter and other were being met by agencies.
The Grand Lodge Hall Progress Report

The renovation of Grand Lodge Hall, the first major building constructed on the grounds of the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown and placed in service in August of 1915, continues on schedule. The Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Homes has been guiding an extensive program of modernization of residential guest quarters since 1979. The grand old lady, the cornerstone of the Masonic Homes complex, is the last to be restored.

This last phase of the project, estimated to cost $45 million, began in January of this year and is scheduled for completion late in 1986. While the interior of the three-story building is undergoing extensive change on the second and third floors, the first floor will be maintained in its original form except for the addition of elevators at each end on the east and west and the installation of new stairwells and fire doors.

The Holmes-glass facade of the building will not be disturbed. As indicated in the accompanying photographs, the interior dry walls have been constructed over the metal studting on the third floor. All wiring and plumbing is complete and the sprinkler system has been tested. Workmen of the Wardell Construction Co. of Lancaster will now apply the dry wall in the hallway and construct the drop ceiling.

A new concrete floor has been poured on the second floor and holes have been drilled for wiring conduit and pluming. The room layout has been drawn on the floor and the metal stud work is beginning.

The old sewer lines in the basement areas have been torn out and replacement of the entire sewage system is proceeding on schedule.

Residential guests continue to use the kitchen and dining room each day in a carefully designed plan that sweeps off the dirt and noise of the construction areas.

Change in Admission Policy

The Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown, having completed an extensive renovation program, is pleased to announce to the membership at large that there are openings available for immediate admissions. In order to fill these openings as quickly and efficiently as possible, the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Homes has expanded the admission policy to include additional classes of applicants.

The Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown is traditionally a Masonic community as evidenced by the following:

1. Masonic Masons who have been members in good standing for 10 or more years and their wives.
2. Widows of Mason Masons with no requirement on the time they were Masons.
3. Mothers of Mason Masons with no requirement on the time they were Masons.
4. Mothers of Living Master Masons providing the Mason has been a member in good standing for 10 or more years.

Now, the Masonic Homes is able to consider applications for admission from daughters, sisters and grandmothers of Master Masons, living or deceased, providing the living Master Mason has been a member in good standing for 10 or more years.

It is still necessary that those who successfully apply surrender their assets upon admission. The primary concern of the Committee on Masonic Homes, however, is to meet the needs of the applicants regardless of financial status. Those meeting the above standards need only make their request known to the Secretary of the Pennsylvania lodge where Masonic affiliation is held. He will secure for you the necessary application forms.

Anyone requiring additional information about the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown is invited to write to the Committee at the Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown, PA 17022-9985.

Maine Honors Pennsylvania Grand Master

The Pennsylvania State University was the site of an extra communication of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania on June 5 when three men, at the direction of the IW Grand Master, Bro. William A. Carpenter, were made Masons at sight.

Brothers Henry Cooper, Robert W. Baer and Henry D. Pye became the fourth, fifth and sixth Masons to be made at sight during the administration of Grand Master Carpenter.

The Grand Master used the authority only he possesses to similarly honor Bros. Raymond A. Helt last June and Brothers Donald B. Reeder and Robert J. Bruce in November.

In the last 106 years, 25 Grand Masters have caused 72 men to be Masons at sight. In the past 10 years.

This latest communication, held in the Pilot S. Ewenhower Auditorium on the university campus, was convoked at 3:00 p.m. and concluded by 4:15 p.m., allowing the more than 500 Masons who attended to eat dinner at 5:00 p.m. and return for the June Quarterly Communication at 7:00 p.m.

A number of unique steps were taken to shorten the time required to confer all three degrees on each candidate.

Brethren, Our Number One Question:
IS PENNSYLVANIA MASONIC TO BE OR NOT TO BE?

My Dear Brethren:

I have forwarded to you the final articles to you Brethren as your Right Worshipful Grand Master. I have decided to share with you in my own words, my opinions of an individual nature. May I begin by thanking you, the Grand Lodge Officers, for all the support and encouragement you have demonstrated to me in the past. I also want to acknowledge my past service as District Deputy Grand Master for your efforts in our Masonic endeavors.

During my seven years as Worshipful Master of Free and Accepted Masons, I have had the opportunity to observe the work of Freemasonry. I have participated in various lodge meetings, joined in the ritual, and observed the conduct of members. I believe that Freemasonry is a unique experience that challenges our minds and hearts to think critically and act ethically. It is an opportunity to grow as individuals and as a community. Freemasonry is a place where we can collectively work towards a common goal, which is the betterment of our society.

In conclusion, I would like to thank you for your continued support and encourage you to continue your participation in Freemasonry. It is a journey of self-discovery and growth, and I believe that it has the potential to make a positive impact on our lives and our communities. Thank you for your support and for being a part of this wonderful organization.

Sincerely,
