

Dry Creek
VINEYARD

DCV10 ESTATE PINOT NOIR
VINTAGE 2016 - SONOMA COUNTY
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY
SINGLE VINEYARD SERIES

DCV 10 ESTATE PINOT NOIR

2016 DCV10 ESTATE PINOT NOIR – Russian River Valley

JAMES SUCKLING
November 2018

91 Points - Plenty of spice and fine, sweet, rose perfume on the nose of this pinot, leading to a very bright, smooth and easygoing palate with subtle oak spice warming the soft, approachable finish. Drink now.

2000 PINOT NOIR – Russian River Valley

THE BEVERAGE
TESTING INSTITUTE
February 2002

Recommended- Dark ruby hue. Jammy, almost porty aromas follow through on a moderately full-bodied palate with a quick finish displaying drying tannins. A chunky, big shouldered pinot lacking in elegance.

1999 PINOT NOIR – Russian River Valley

DAN BERGER'S
VINTAGE EXPERIENCE
September 2001

Very Highly Recommended - Straightforward blunt cherry aroma with a trace of pine or mint. Made in a style that goes back to California Pinots of the 1970s, with weight and broad fruit.

QUARTERLY REVIEW
OF WINES
Summer 2001

Excellent - Medium-deep, purple-tinged garnet color; rich, ripe, wholly seductive, black cherry nose; ripe, bright, elegant, black cherry flavors, with nice underlying succulence; soft, round finish.

PACIFIC RIM
INTERNATIONAL
WINE COMPETITION
2001 Result

Gold Medal - Best of Class

LAST UPDATE: MAY 2019