93 Points - Small amounts of Sauvignon Musqué and Sauvignon Gris, plus a brief time spent in oak barrels, have all helped add a layer of complexity to Dry Creek Vineyard's Sauvignon Blanc, as well as somewhat more texture. That said, this vintage of Dry Creek Sauvignon Blanc is still crisp, dry and racy, with flashes of citrus, melon and stone fruit flavors. -Marguerite Thomas

CALIFORNIA GRAPEVINE
July 2018

90 Points - Very Highly Recommended - Light yellow; attractive, assertive, fragrant, floral, grassy, lemon/lime, peach, and tropical fruit aroma with a mineral note, and a feint trace of oak; medium body; crisp, fresh, tangerine, guava, and passion fruit flavors with bright acidity; lingering aftertaste. A "pretty," nicely balanced wine that's very enjoyable to drink now and over the next year or two.

90 Points - This is a voluptuous style, fleshy and fulfilling in ripe pineapple and papaya, evocative of tropical shores. Brisling acidity complements the fruit, as a wave of creamy vanilla picks up steam on the lengthy finish.
