

CHURCH VOCALIST / CHORAL DIRECTOR

Deirdre is a versatile musician with extensive experience in all aspects of Catholic Music and mass settings. She is able to sing in different languages including: Spanish, Tagalog, German, Latin, French, Italian, and English. She is soloist for various events to include weddings, funerals and memorial services, Quinceaneras, etc. As a musician she is a good sight reader and is proficient in various styles of religious music including classical, contemporary, meditative, plainsong chant and hymnody. She is able to sing on very short notice and able to learn new music on the spot.

Deirdre is very professional and always prepared and on time. She has experience singing for services at Lutheran, Presbyterian, and Methodist churches as well.

In addition to being a soloist and cantor, Deirdre has had more than 15 years of choral conducting experience, where she has worked with a volunteer adult choir. Her duties have included not just conducting but music planning for the masses as well.

