Temple Christian Academy sports players must abide by the following guidelines:

- Players must maintain an overall C average (or above) to be eligible to play every game. (The coach will request to see each player's report card/progress report)
 - A failing grade on any progress report or report card will call for a consultation with the coach, player, and players parents to determine players eligibility.
- Players must be a student of our academy, a homeschooled student that attends our church on a weekly basis, or a pastor's child that is homeschooled.
 - Weekly church attendance is a requirement for all of our sports players.
- Players must maintain a good sportsman-like conduct while on and off the court.
 - Athletes are a representation of Temple Christian Academy and Temple Baptist Church.
- Players must adhere to the dress standard set by the coach.
 - T-shirt and pants/shorts for practice
 - Basketball jersey and basketball pants for games
 - Khaki pants and a polo/collared shirt for game day attire (away and home games)
- Players' parents are required to sign the TCA Athletic Liability Form.
