- Have never been convicted of a felony and have not been convicted of any misdemeanor offense, except traffic offenses, for a period of five (5) years preceding appointment;
- Have regularly abstained from the excessive use of alcohol and any use of illegal drugs;
- Not be less than twenty-five (25) years of age;
- Cannot be a member of the Nation's Legislative Branch or serve on any of the Nation's Boards; and
- If not an attorney or law graduate, must have completed at least thirty (30) semester credit hours at an accredited college or university, or at least two (2) years of previous experience as a judicial officer for a Tribal Court.

In addition to the Minimum Qualifications, the following additional qualifications are preferred:

- Licensed attorney in good standing;
- Three (3) years full-time and/or equivalent judicial experience;
- Experience in Tribal Courts;

- Knowledge of Tribal and Federal Indian Law and familiarity with Tribal communities;
- Possess a high level of competence and ability to apply principles of law to the particular factual circumstances presented in cases coming before the Court;
- Excellent verbal, writing and communications skills;
- Sound judicial temperament;
- Ability to use computers and word processing programs;
- Ability to make effective presentations and explain the legal reasoning in controversial or complex topics;
- Have the capacity to remain open-minded;
- Manage case workload efficiently;
- Respect peers and all persons appearing before the court.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Exercises the duties and powers of a justice of the Court of Appeals as provided in the Yavapai-Apache Nation Constitution and the Judicial Code;
- Serves on the three (3) justice panel that hears appeals from the Tribal Court;
- Presides over proceedings before the Court of Appeals;
