

Kindergarten Master Supply List

For Reading / Language Arts:

Letter manipulative of your choosing, 2 or 3 of each letters (tiles, magnets, blocks, etc.)

“My Language Arts Notebook” (included in your purchase), printed out

Pencils

Crayons

Colored Pencils

Markers

Scissors

Glue

A folder or baggies to store your word cards in, once they've been cut out (the word cards are at the back of “My Language Arts Notebook”

For Nature Study:

“Nature Notebook” (included in your purchase), printed out

Colored pencils

Baking tray

Sand

Food scraps for track-trap (weeks 20 and 21)

Bean seeds (weeks 26 - 36)

Soil (weeks 26 - 36)

Pot with drainage holes (weeks 26 - 36)

Fruits and vegetables to dissect (weeks 28 and 30)

Access to local field guides (library, internet, or your own)

Natural materials supplied by your surroundings: rocks, sticks, flowers, etc. (please gather responsibly)

For Integrated Math and Science:

Access to books (library, book apps, etc.)

Access to documentaries, films (Netflix, Amazon, YouTube, etc.)

Access to the internet

Crayons

Pencils

Markers

Scissors

Glue

Tape

Random craft supplies of your choosing to “build your ship”

A large cardboard box, or several boxes, to “make your ship”

A stack of old magazines (hair colors, doctor’s offices, libraries, etc. often have these)

Copy paper

Gallon-sized Ziplock baggies

Counters made from just about anything (dried beans, shells, acorns, pebbles, etc.)

Lego bricks or colorful blocks

A ruler or tape measure

For Art

Large sheets of white printing paper or copy paper

Watercolor paint

Watercolor paper

Tempera paint or poster paint in red, yellow, blue, white, brown, and black

Paint brushes

Scissors

Glue or glue stick

Construction paper, variety of colors

Small box of oil pastels

Clipboard

Small mirror

Spray bottle

Air-dry clay (used for one activity)

An apron or old work-shirt

A tarp or plastic tablecloth

Stack of old magazines (doctor’s office, hair salon, library may have these)

Pencils

Wet wipes

For History / Geography

Access to family photos, albums, records, videos (optional)

Access to internet and printer OR photocopy machine

Atlas or map

Encyclopedia access

Access to books, movies, documentaries, children's programs, YouTube, etc. for each of your chosen local and world heroes and all four composers and all four artists (optional)

Scissors

Glue

Colored pencils

Crayons

Markers

"History and Geography Notebook" (included in your purchase), printed out