

Maintenance Tech. Peninsula Rescue Mission Job Description

The Peninsula Rescue Mission is a Christian ministry serving those in need on the Peninsula. It is our intention that everyone who comes into contact with the PRM experience the love of Christ and hear about His saving grace. We are in search of a likeminded man to join our ministry team in the role of part-time maintenance tech. This position requires a man with the skill, experience, and knowledge to ensure the PRM facilities look their best and remain fully functional. He must be reliable, able to manage his time, and have an eye for detail and neatness.

Duties and Responsibilities, include but not limited to:

- General building repairs such as patching and painting damaged walls and ceilings, door and window adjustments, inspection of roof leaks, etc.
- Complete minor carpentry and renovation projects as requested.
- Maintain lighting, replacing bulbs, ballasts, fixtures, and switches as needed.
- Maintain functionality of plumbing systems, fixing leaks, opening clogs, replacing seals, and installing new fixtures as needed.
- Perform basic routine maintenance on building equipment.
- Investigate problems with appliances and HVAC equipment, making repairs when able and calling a repair technician when needed.

Requirements and Qualifications:

- High School diploma or equivalent qualification.
- Minimum of 2 years applicable work experience.
- Understanding of building construction, plumbing, electrical, and HVAC systems.
- Ability to work safely on ladders, with hardware, tools, and power equipment.
- Ability to do moderate to heavy lifting, bending, stooping, standing, and walking, for extended periods.
- Mechanical aptitude and problem solving skills including ability to read and understand equipment manuals.
- Ability to stay organized, manage time, and communicate well with others.
- Detail oriented with high work standards.
- Valid driver's license.
- Active membership in a local Christian church and agreement with the Mission's statement of faith (attached to employment application).
