

Getting started with FactCite!

FactCite is an award-winning online collection of reference resources designed and written especially for students in grades 1 to 12.

To access your FactCite subscription go to www.FactCite.com

FactCite databases include:

- FactCite 123: Grades 1 to 3
- Lingo 123: Spanish/English version
- Biography for Beginners: Grades 3 to 7
- Essential Biographies: Grades 4 and up
  - * Shapers of Society, Sports Champions, World Biography
- Mythology: Grades 4 and up
- American History: Grades 4 and up
- Science: Grades 4 and up
- Defining Moments: Grades 5 and up
- Countries and Cultures: Grades 4 and up
- Essential Information: Grades 6 and up
- Milestone Documents: Grades 7 and up

Check out “Tips for Teachers” resources

Take a look at our ever growing collection of case studies and lesson plans.

<http://www.factcite.com/media/tipsforteachers.html>

Test the audio read-along!

Click on the “Play” button to have the text read aloud. Click on the settings wheel to change the reading speed, set highlighting options, and more!

Cite FactCite

Copy and paste the MLA8 citation or click the NoodleTools  icon to load the citation.

Get notices of FactCite news!

Subscribe to our eblasts – send your email address to owls@factcite.com

Send us your suggestions

Use the “send a comment” link at the end of every FactCite article to send us suggestions! We love hearing from our FactCite subscribers.

Share FactCite with your colleagues – here’s a link to sign up for a free preview!

<http://www.factcite.com/taxis/trialform> or call 800/516-2656

Contact us any time!

800/516-2656 or owls@factcite.com