

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

Archdiocese of Philadelphia

www.AOPCatholicSchools.org

AOP Catholic High Schools are secondary educational institutions providing a safe and dynamic environment, which promotes the spiritual, academic, and social development of the individual within the message of the Gospels. Our high schools offer a rigorous curriculum, designed to meet the individual needs of a diverse student body. We address the challenges our students will face by fostering critical thinking, creativity, collaboration and communication. AOP High Schools' vision encompasses character development through faith formation, a collaborative effort for educational excellence and committed service to others. The challenging academic curriculum, competitive athletics program and engaging activities complement each other to foster courage, character and leadership.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia is seeking certified teachers who are highly qualified to teach our high school students. These positions will be staffed with professional educators who provide excellent learning experiences and establishing a culture of high expectations.

- BUSINESS – Academic and Technology
- ENGLISH – Language Arts
- FINE ARTS – Music and Visual Arts
- MATH – Algebra, Geometry, and Trig/Pre-Calculus, Calculus
- SCIENCE – Biology, Chemistry, and Physics
- SOCIAL STUDIES
- WORLD LANGUAGES – French, Italian, Latin, and Spanish

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution in education.

Candidates interested in teaching position should submit their cover letter, resume, and transcripts to Mr. James Molnar, HR Director for Secondary Schools at:

jmolnar@archphila.org

Please mark subject line: AOPTEACHER– 2019-20

Interviews will be granted to the most qualified applicants.

PA required clearances, Safe environment clearances and official transcripts will be required before employment can begin.

As a religious organization, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is also bound by Canon Law and Catholic teachings. For this reason, there may be occasions when an employee's failure to adhere to the truths of the Catholic faith are a factor in employment-related decisions. In the event an employee fails to adhere to, or takes a position publicly that is contrary to, Catholic doctrine and teachings, or any policy or procedure maintained by the Archdiocese, the employee may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Employment practices will not be influenced by an individual's legally protected status or any other basis as may be required by local, state and/or federal law as those laws apply to the Archdiocese.

Any employee with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace is encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of Human Resources. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.