

International Scholarship of the Month

Cornelius Vanderbilt Scholarship Programme at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN USA

http://www.vanderbilt.edu/scholarships/files/merit_scholarships_2017.pdf

Eligibility: Any undergraduate applicant to Vanderbilt University

Award: Full tuition and potential stipends to study abroad or do further research.

Background: The Cornelius Vanderbilt Scholarship Program honours the vision of Vanderbilt University's founder, Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, who endowed the university in 1873 with a gift of $1 million.

Vanderbilt University, located in Nashville, Tennessee, is a private, research university and medical centre offering a full-range of undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degrees. Located in lovely Nashville, 'Vandy' offers undergraduates on-campus housing for all four years and a wide selection of majors including liberal arts and sciences, engineering, music, education and human development. Approximately 11,800 students attend Vanderbilt and there are other scholarships available to international students. Admission is highly competitive.

For information on this scholarship and others, please contact us at info@mayflowereducation.co.uk