Gold Sponsor | Dawex spotlight on Data Exchange in DAVOS

The 2022 World Economic Forum Annual Meeting in Davos dedicated four (4) sessions to Data Exchange. It has become that critical! As a leading technology company in this space, Dawex was invited to speak about “Strengthening Trust in Public-Private Data Exchanges”. More than $20 billion in new value have been created by public-private data exchanges. Creating new ecosystems through data exchanges has never been so crucial for organizations in order to survive and remain competitive. A company that does not share its data is isolated and will inevitably underperform. Come and learn...
