

Librarian Position Description

According to Chapter Constitution

The Librarian shall have responsibility of Chapter owned books and have them available for circulation among the members. The Librarian shall appoint a committee to take inventory of books once a year or when moving them to a new location.