

Ways and Means Chair Position Description

According to Chapter Constitution

"The Ways and Means Committee shall be responsible for all fund-raising projects in the name of the Chapter. All funds raised must be used in accordance with Article II."

The Ways and Means Committee Chair is responsible for developing and implementing fundraising projects to support the chapter's budget. With the help of a committee, Ways and Means explores various projects and events to raise funds. These can include activities held among club members or activities that include the local community. The chair is responsible for submitting information on all fundraising activities to the board and to keep the membership informed.
