

RHUMBA MAN

words & music by Jesse Winchester

Key: A Start note: A Time: 4/4 Strum: calypso

Intro: A /// A /// A /// A /// Percussion: lots

1. I'm the same old guy that I used to be.... I haven't changed at all
I got the same old walk and the same old talk that would run you up the wall
I got the same old face, the same old smile and the same old baby blues
And I'm still doing the rhumba, baby, so I'm still the man for you.

CHORUS:

- I'm still doing the rhumba, baby.... I can't seem to quit,
If my mamma catches us doing the rhumba, Mamma would just pitch a fit.
But..... I can't help myself, it's much bigger than me.
If I were you, I'd hang onto a rhumba man like me.*
2. There's lots of guys on the floor tonight with a lot slicker steps than me.
The boogaloo and the funky Broadway are such a pretty sight to see.
My step might be old fashioned but it's just fine with me.
I got a couple of rhumba steps that I think you'd like to see.

CHORUS

INTERLUDE A A D A
 A A D E A

3. I'm the same old guy that I used to be.... I haven't changed at all
I got the same old walk and the same old talk that would run you up the wall
I got the same old face, the same old smile and the same old baby blues
And I'm still doing the rhumba, baby, so I'm still the man for you.

CHORUS.... X 2

OUTRO: A A D A (repeat and fade out)
