ANITA GABRIELIAN
BOARD MEMBER SINCE 2019

Anita is co-founder and partner of CG Benefits Group, offering employee benefits solutions and insurance services. Anita has extensive general business, government affairs, project management and risk management experience. She has been a licensed insurance professional for over 30 years, specializing in the Life, Health and Disability area. Prior to establishing CGBG, she served as Vice President of External Affairs in Los Angeles for AT&T where she had a long and distinguished career.

Supporting accessible quality education, workforce readiness and community development are some of her passions and she is proud of her community and public service experience. Anita is Chair of the Board of MAOF and is appointed to serve on the City of Glendale's Community Development Block Grant Advisory Committee. She served as an elected official on the Glendale Community College Board of Trustees from 2002 to 2017 and was voted unanimously by her fellow trustees to serve as president of the board for three terms.

Her community and professional service has earned her recognition from several organizations including her representatives at the California State Assembly, Senate and US Congressional Districts, The San Gabriel Valley Economic Partnership, the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Business Life Magazine, and the National Latina Businesswomen's Association. She is committed to serving our community and has held prominent roles on many boards including Glendale Memorial Hospital, Cal State LA's Pat Brown Institute for Public Affairs and the California Council on Economic Education.

Gabrielian earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the USC Marshall School of Business and an MBA from California Polytechnic University in Pomona.

Anita and her husband Leo have lived in Glendale for over thirty years. They have three daughters, who along with parents, are USC Alumni. Anita enjoys spending time with family, reading, party-planning, soccer and traveling.
