Information and Membership Application

HISTORY OF OUR CLUB

During regular breakfast meeting of the Glenview Chamber of Commerce, a frequent subject of conversation was gardening and the Glenview Gardeners Club was born. The new group would focus on general aspects of planning, designing, establishing and maintaining gardens

The first meeting was held in January 1991. The group has met every month since.

PURPOSE

- 🌸 To bring together men and women who enjoy gardening
- 🌸 To advance the knowledge of horticulture
- 🌸 To promote gardening in the Village of Glenview
- 🌸 To promote civic pride in both private and public gardens

MEMBER BENEFITS

MEETING LOCATIONS

From October thru April we meet indoors at the Glenview Library, 1930 Glenview Road at 7:00 PM.

May thru September we meet at various locations such as a commercial garden center where we get a discount and have a picnic dinner and a member's house for a plant exchange. These two events are members only. We also meet at the Kennicott Grove where we maintain a garden, have special trips and do visits.

The schedule for meetings is posted on our web site: glenviewgardeners.org

WHO CAN JOIN

Membership is open to anyone who shares love of America's favorite outdoor activity, regardless of your level of gardening knowledge or experience. You can be assured that you will be warmly welcomed!
