Maureen Hollins
Adjudicator - Senior Piano

Maureen Hollins has a Performer's Diploma from both the Royal Conservatory of Music and the Victoria Conservatory of Music; a Bachelor of Music Degree in performance piano from the University of British Columbia; the Professional Development Program from Simon Fraser University; and a Masters of Divinity Degree from the Vancouver School of Theology. She was inspired by teachers Audrey Mallinson, Dale Reubar, Winifred Scott Wood and Jean Coulthard.

Maureen established her piano studio in Surrey in the late 1970's, and since that time has adjudicated music festivals throughout British Columbia. As a clinician, she presents master classes and workshops for teachers and students. An enthusiastic pedagogue, Maureen shares time between the roles of teacher, church musician, liturgist, mentor and collaborative pianist. As an active, long term member of the Registered Music Teachers, South Fraser Branch, she is passionate about promoting Canadian music.

Maureen's students are recipients of numerous awards from local festivals, the Victoria Conservatory and the Royal Conservatory of Music. Maureen loves to teach. Sharing the skill of piano playing and discovering the meaning of music with young people continues to be a challenge and an honour.
