March 16, 2020

Dear Friends,

This is an extra edition of our monthly e-newsletter to update our valued friends, volunteers and customers about the Diamond Bar Friends of the Library during this very unusual time.

- As it is important that we not congregate in any numbers, both of our Basically BOOKS locations will be closed until further notice.
- Our new book discussion group, the Four Seasons, that was scheduled to meet this Thursday, March 19 will not be able to meet as both the Diamond Bar Library and the Windmill Room are closed. Our next meeting is scheduled for June 18 but right now that date is only tentative.
- Our monthly Sidewalk Sale outside of Basically BOOKS on Golden Springs Drive will not be held next Saturday, March 21. Also we do not know the status of the April 18 sale at this time.
- Our annual Wine Soirée and Benefit Auction scheduled for Sunday, April 26 has been rescheduled for Sunday, September 20 from 4 pm to 7 pm at the Diamond Bar Center. We are grateful to be able to get this date in September and know it will be the best Soirée ever.

We look forward to you joining us when all our events resume. If you have any questions, you can respond to this email and we will do our best to answer.

We suggest you get some good books, relax, stay safe and stay home if possible. We wish you all the best in the coming months and thank you for all your support of the Diamond Bar Library and the Diamond Bar Friends of the Library.
