6 and raised us up with Him, and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

2 Cor 11:2

2 For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I betrothed you to one husband, so that to Christ I might present you as a pure virgin.

Matt 1:18-19

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit.

19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her, planned to send her away secretly.

Both are baptized.

Matt 3:15-16

16 After being baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water;

1 Cor 12:13

For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

1 Cor 15:51-52

51 Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed,

12 Now if any man builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw,

13 each man's work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each man's work.

Faithfulness in shepherding the flock of God.

Let's see now . . . what am I responsible for?

1. Time

- One thing that all of us have, is the same amount of “time.” 24 hours for everyone. No more for some and no less for others.
- We don’t have and infinite amount of time to get done what God has called us to.
- Time forces us to prioritize what we do. Some things are more important than others. So I must focus on what is most important.

Therefore there are 2 things required:

- Planned neglect: deciding what is most important and then plan to neglect everything else without feeling guilty.*
- The power of negative thinking: saying “no” to good things so we can say yes to the best. Learn to turn down, to say “no” to things that will hinder you from receiving rewards. You don’t have enough time to invest in good things or better things, but only what is best.

- You may retire from your career or secular job but you will never retire from your occupation with God.
- There is a time for recreation and rest but this world has blown that way out of proportion because to the world, this is their “heaven.”
- How much time have you already lost? You can’t afford to lose any more!

Jonathan Edwards

#1 Resolved, that I will do what I think will most glorify God.

- Every day, every decision, every moment, every priority will aim at one thing and one thing only and that is to glorify God.

#5 Resolved, never to lose one moment of time; but seize the time to use it in the most profitable way I possibly can.

- In order to do that there needs to be 3 subjects pressed on my life on a daily basis all of the time:

- 1. The shortness of life.
- 2. The certainty of death.
- 3. The length of eternity.

Jonathan Edwards prayer –

“God, stamp eternity on my eyeballs.”

- “I want to live and see everything with an eternal perspective.”
- He realized that time was a precious commodity. To him time was liquid gold.
- He realized that if he wasted and squandered his time, he could not most fully glorify God.
- The number of years, months, days, hours, and seconds of my life are sovereignly predestined by God and they are limited.
- God has determined my birth and God has determined my death.

Ps 139:16

16 Your eyes have seen my unformed substance;
And in Your book were all written
The days that were ordained for me,
When as yet there was not one of them.

Job 14:5

5 "Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with You;
And his limits You have set so that he cannot pass.

Ps 90:12

12 So teach us to number our days,
That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

- Therefore you do not have a second to waste. I do not have a second to waste.
- God gives us opportunities that He has appointed for us to do.
- I only have a certain number of days to take advantage of those opportunities.
- I must capture the moment when those doors swing open. Those doors later will be closed.

#7 Resolved, never to do anything which I would be afraid to do if it were the last hour of my life.

- Think of the last hour of your life. What do you not want to be doing in that last hour? Don't do it now. What do you want to be doing? Do it now. Do it always.
- Christ was always preparing for the last hour of His life – “my hour has not yet come.”
- We want to die with no regrets.
- Therefore you need to stay focused and riveted on the last hour of your life so you will die with no regrets.
- Today you will make decisions that will affect that last hour.

#10 Resolved, when I feel pain, to think of the pains of martyrdom and of hell.

- When we have trials, problems, disappointments, frustrations, tribulations, we need to keep them in proper perspective.
- Our problems paralyze us. They defeat us. They become larger and greater than life itself. They can slow us down.
- I need to be thinking of the martyrs. Those who have been burned at the stake. Those tortured. Those murdered.
- I also need to be thinking of those who will spend eternity in hell. The fact that none of us are in hell or will spend an eternity there is far more than we deserve.
- Therefore compared to the martyrs and those in hell, I have no “bad days”. I have no “problems.”
- I cannot let my trials and problems slow me down from making my time count for the glory of God.

#50 Resolved, that I will act, and think, and judge what is best and most prudent, based on when I come into the future world.

- My life should be shaped now by what is most important in heaven.
- What are the priorities in heaven? They should be my priorities.
- What is most important there, should be most important here.

#63 On the supposition, that there never was to be but one individual in the world, at any one time, who was properly a complete Christian in all respects, having Christianity always shining in its true luster, and appearing excellent and lovely, from whatever part and under whatever character viewed:

Resolved, to act just as I would do, if I strove with all my might to be that one.

- To receive a full reward, you must desire and strive to be that individual who is fully consecrated to God.
- D.L. Moody once said, “The world has yet to see what God can do with a man fully consecrated to him. By God’s help, I aim to be that man.”
- Jonathan Edward’s life is inspiring because of his zeal not to waste it.
