Cincinnati: City of the Future...Or Not

Imagine driving into Cincinnati at night, greeted by spires of light reaching into dark skies, a string of jewels in the form of suspended mass transportation lacing its way through a space-aged riverfront while boats gently bob in marinas all along the Ohio River as a bell tolls from a spiraling tower in Newport, Ky., marking the hour. This is the Greater Cincinnati of dreams, the one that never was...As early as the mid-1940s Cincinnati city planners began discussing a grand re-imagining of the city's Riverfront that the current Banks project echoes.
