

Chinese Drywall Settlement

Your Rights Could be Affected

A Settlement has been reached with Taishan Gypsum Company and other entities (“Defendants”) in class action lawsuits involving drywall imported from China. The lawsuits claim that the drywall caused property damage and personal injuries. The Defendants deny that they did anything wrong.

Who is included?

The Settlement includes property owners with Chinese Drywall attributed to the Defendants. Go to ChineseDrywallSettlement.com (“website”) for a full description of the Class and a Master Spreadsheet of Known Class Members.

What does the Settlement provide?

The Defendants will contribute $248 million into a Settlement Fund. Eligible claimants will receive payments according to an Allocation Model (more info at website). The Allocation Amount will compensate for remediation damages and other loss claims. There will be no payment for personal or bodily injuries although those claims will be released by this Settlement.

How can I get a payment?

Claimants not already listed on the Master Spreadsheet on the website must submit a Claim Form online or by mail. The deadline to submit a claim will be no earlier than December 11, 2019 and will be updated on the website.

What are my rights?

If you are not listed on the Master Spreadsheet and you do nothing, you will not be considered for any payment and you will be barred from individually suing the Defendants. If you want to keep your right to individually sue the Defendants, you must exclude yourself by November 27, 2019. If you object to the Settlement, you must do so by November 27, 2019.

The Court will hold a hearing on December 11, 2019 to consider whether to approve the Settlement. Class Counsel will also request attorneys’ fees and costs not to exceed 33% of the Settlement Fund. You or your own lawyer may appear and ask to speak at the hearing at your own expense.
