ABOUT EVEREST MECHANICAL

Everest Mechanical was created in January 2019. It started out with the asset acquisition of a long-standing Plumbing, HVAC and Refrigeration company in Estes Park followed, by the acquisition of a similar business in Loveland in the Fall of 2019. Through a merger these transformed into Everest Mechanical. The intent of creating Everest was to build a platform using systematized, efficient, and scalable processes, in the plumbing, HVAC, and refrigeration services to provide a more streamlined and better service to our end users. We aim to create a customer focused business that responds to our customers in a timely manner; treating them with honesty, integrity, diligence, and fairness.

Tony was very professional and friendly. He explained everything thoroughly and spelled out our options so we could make the best decision for our circumstances. He went above and beyond by assisting us with an unrelated issue. We would definitely use Everest again.

Was having issues with the boiler in our "new to us" house. Called Everest and got immediate help. Nate was a great investigator and problem solver, and the problem is now addressed. Polite and thorough. Great to have them in Estes!

We built a new cabin in Estes Park a couple years ago. ProTec HVAC did the initial install of our hydronic heating and hot water. Poor choice - will never use them again. Have since been using Everest - kind, conscientious, logical and very easy to work with - highly recommend them for any service needs you may have.

Very professional and responsive, Brian got back to me promptly with the quote and they were very flexible with options for installation. Prices are quite reasonable and I'd recommend them for future work including annual maintenance and AC work.

Everest installed a replacement air conditioner for me on November 11, 2020. I found their service outstanding. Representative came to my home and provided a reasonable estimate. Office staff was great in finalizing and setting up installation. Installers, Joe and Thomas, arrived on time, kept me informed throughout the day, answered all my question and were great to work with. I found everything about working with Everest great!
