

TREASURES IN POTTON

Second hand jewellery sale fundraiser to benefit youth programs

THE SCOOP

MABLE HASTINGS

The upcoming weekend promises to be a busy one in Potton with the C'est Chouette Christmas Market happening both Saturday and Sunday at the Mansonville Town Hall with a variety of artisans present and bargains galore!

Just down the road from the Christmas Market, the Missisquoi North Youth Centre invites shoppers to Come pick up a treasure or two at the Second hand jewellery (and plenty of it), purses, movies, scarves, cd's, books, trinkets and so on at very reasonable prices. Refreshments will be on sale during this event. Don't miss the bargains!! Saturday Dec.9th at 8:30am-2:30pm 282 rue principale in Mansonville.

This fundraiser benefits the CAB's weekly Youth Centre programs for youth ages 5 and up. It is organized by the Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) and YC staff. The sale is successful however thanks to the generous donations of items from people all over the townships! If you have jewellery, purses, scarves, music, movies etc... to donate, the YC is happy to pick up donations.

Please contact m.hastings@cabmn.org to arrange pick up this week if you have items to donate. All donations are greatly appreciated.

uation is entirely under control on the roads.

A roadblock set up on Friday came up dry, but two other drivers were arrested for driving while impaired over the weekend in Sherbrooke.

The roadblock took place on Friday night at 9:00 p.m. at the roundabout on Queen Street in the borough of Lennoxville at the end of Highway 410. The joint Sûreté du Québec and Sherbrooke Police operation resulted in the interception of 500 vehicles. None involved an impaired driver.

Nevertheless, police say, the empty-net operation doesn't mean that the sit-

On Saturday night around midnight, a driver was stopped on King St. East at the intersection of Kennedy St. The man registered 145 mg of alcohol per 100 ml of blood, considerably above the legal limit.

On Sunday, a driver was stopped on King St. West who registered a level of 155 mg of alcohol per 100 ml of blood. The impaired driver was intercepted at 2655 King Street West.

Both drivers are scheduled to appear in court at a later date to face charges of impaired driving.

seized close to 25 grams of a white, cocaine-like powder, about 100 methamphetamine pills, about 75 grams of cannabis, and about $3,000 worth of other items that could be used in the trafficking of drugs.

A Scotstown man has been arrested following a major drug search last Friday.

On Friday, officers from the Haut-St-François Sûreté du Québec detachment executed a search warrant for a residence on Albert Street in Scotstown and Nelson Bernier, 49, was arrested and charged for drug trafficking and drug possession.
