Meet "DJ Jerk"

go the extra mile, DJ Jerk is far from what the name might suggest.

"The name came about in a slip of the tongue comment made to my wife by a friend in reference to my deejay service and I found the name both catchy and fun so, it stuck," Eldridge explained. "People call out to me and they smile and really, what more can you ask for in a name?"

Jeremy Eldridge has long been involved in the local youth programs and has danced, acted, sang and provided comic relief for many shows and theatrical productions. Now, as a father of two girls ages 8 and 11, Jeremy "the Dad," finds that he is helping with a variety of shows and events for the youth in Potton and surrounding areas.

"While I enjoy volunteering and especially love to help with projects involving my own kids, I have to look at this endeavour as a business," confessed Jeremy. "With newer businesses like the Bistro Chouette where I did a gig last evening to a full house crowd and the expansion of Owl's Head in full swing, the likelihood that their will be more opportunities to find gigs as a local dj business is promising. I am hoping that by investing in the proper equipment, the business will expand and grow."

The Municipality of Potton is also expanding and there is a real emphasis on supporting local business and entrepreneurial efforts and thus, it is hoped that DJ Jerk will be the go to guy as other businesses in the area adopt the same mindset. DJ Jerk brings music to the ears and likely a crowd to your next event. DJ Jerk will be spinning tunes on Friday evening August 10 as part of the Potton Spirit Festival in Mansonville following the bingo and karaoke events in the big tent in the center of town.
