Do you or any other member of your family have extended health or dental benefits with another plan? yes no

If yes, specify if coverage is: single coverage family coverage

Waiver of extended health and/or dental coverage (spousal opt out) OR co-ordination of benefits: I, and/or my dependants, have coverage with my spouse’s Group Insurance Plan and I wish to:

- Waive the coverage for myself and my dependants (no extended health or dental with Empire Life)
- Waive the coverage for my dependants only (single extended health or dental with Empire Life)
- Co-ordinate Benefits (coverage with spouse’s carrier and Empire Life)

Apply my selection to: Extended health Dental Both (If not specified we will apply to both health and dental coverage.)

4. BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION (to be used only for benefits payable upon death of Insured Employee)

Minors: Death Benefits will not be paid directly to a minor beneficiary. Outside Quebec, you should name a trustee for a minor beneficiary and any Death Benefits due to the beneficiary, while a minor, will be paid to the trustee. In Quebec, Death Benefits due to a beneficiary, while a minor, will be paid to the Tutor(s) unless you have appointed an Administrator or have established a formal trust. After the beneficiary reaches the age of majority, any Death Benefits due to the beneficiary will be paid directly to the beneficiary unless you have established a formal trust.

Primary Designations: If a beneficiary is not named, the death benefit will be paid to the Estate of the Employee. Percentages for all beneficiaries must total 100%. If you name more than one beneficiary and do not indicate a share percentage, the benefits will be divided equally among all surviving beneficiaries.

Irrevocable/Revocable Designations: A minor should not be designated as an irrevocable beneficiary. A minor irrevocable beneficiary cannot consent to a change of beneficiary and a parent or guardian may not sign on behalf of a minor child for this purpose. All beneficiaries are assumed revocable unless you check the irrevocable box except in Quebec. In Quebec, if a married or civil union spouse is named beneficiary, the designation is irrevocable unless otherwise indicated. Once an irrevocable primary beneficiary has been named, his/her written consent will be required for certain transactions.
