

READING GLASSES

A Summer of Books and Wine

WINE READING LIST

The Vineyard

by Barbara Delinsky

This New York Times bestseller is the story of two women whose dreams are bound together across generations.

Proof

by Dick Francis

A wine merchant becomes tangled in a mystery that's an intoxicating blend of deception, intrigue, and murder.

The Wine Bible

by Karen MacNeil

This valuable resource offers the fundamentals of wine with informative tips, maps, and more.

Wine: A Tasting Course

by Marnie Old

This book is the ultimate visual wine course for wine lovers seeking no-nonsense, practical information.

Visit josephinelibrary.org for the full list of wine-related books available at Josephine Community Libraries.

“CLINK! A TASTE OF OREGON WINE” EXHIBITION

August through September

This traveling exhibition from the Oregon Historical Society is made up of 12 colorful banners with photographs and text illustrating the history of the flourishing Oregon wine industry.

OREGON WINE UNIVERSITY: WINE DISCOVERY SERIES “25 THINGS YOU THOUGHT YOU KNEW ABOUT WINE”

with Liz Wan of Serra Vineyards.

Friday, August 12 at 5:30 p.m.

$39 per person

Let us demystify 25 tidbits most people thought they knew about wine and arm you with the tools to hold your own among the wine enthusiasts of the world.

To purchase tickets, visit theoregonwineexperience.com, then choose “Oregon Wine University: Wine Discovery Series” from the “events” dropdown menu.

WINE 101

with Liz Wan of Serra Vineyards

Saturday, September 10 at 5:30 p.m.

Whether you're new to the industry or have been serving wine for years, you're bound to learn something new from this FREE class. Wine 101 will teach industry people how to choose, pair, and serve wine for a variety of situations. Participants will learn how to evaluate wine, how to pick the best wines for favorite foods, and tips to understanding tasting notes.

All events held at the Grants Pass branch of Josephine Community Libraries located at 200 NW C Street. For more information about Reading Glasses: A Summer of Books and Wine, contact the library at 541-476-0571 or email info@josephinelibrary.org.