WFMC Preparations for a Canadian federal election in 2021

The World Federalist Movement – Canada and supporters raise topics of concern among the federal political parties and candidates standing for election. The responses from parties, indicative of national party policies, are published and circulated to supporters across Canada prior to election day.

What are the global governance issues World Federalists should be raising with candidates and political parties in a federal election, expected in late Spring or Fall of 2021?

Section 1: Canadian foreign policy priorities (choose 2)

- Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons
- Feminist foreign policy
- Development assistance to the UN-recommended 0.7% of GDP
- Canadian commitments under The Paris Agreement on climate change
- Promoting democratic governance abroad

Section 2: Strengthening the United Nations and global governance (choose 2)

- The Responsibility to Protect
- A United Nations Emergency Peace Service
- A United Nations Parliamentary Assembly
- Greater Canadian personnel commitments to UN peacekeeping operations
- A more open and transparent process for selecting senior UN leadership, including the Secretary-General

Are there other Canadian foreign policy and UN reform issues that are not listed above that you feel the Executive of the World Federalists should consider for the WFMC 2021 election questionnaire?
