

Festival of Faith

A CELEBRATION OF VATICAN II'S
50TH ANNIVERSARY

MONSIGNOR PABLO COLINO

Born in Pamplona, Spain in 1934 Msgr. Pablo Colino graduated in philosophy and theology at the Lateran University in Rome. He has obtained the magisterium in composition, sacred music and choral conducting at the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music in Rome. He specialized in teaching methodology and music pedagogy according to the methods of Justine Ward, Carl Orff, Zoltan Kodaly and Emile Jaques-Dalcroze in Paris, Montserrat, Salzburg and Kecskemet.

Msgr. Colino also specialized in choral conducting under the guidance of Marin Constantin at the Conservatory of Bucharest and in the disciplines of Art, Music and Entertainment (DAMS) at the University of Bologna. He is Canon and Chapel Master emeritus of St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican. Academician, director of music education courses, conductor of the Accademia Filarmonica Romana Choir and the Accademia Tiberina Choir. Academician of the Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Fernando in Madrid.

Msgr. Colino co-operates with the Italian Television and the Vatican Radio and is Artistic Consultant of the Vicariate of Rome (Social Communications Office) and Rome Opera Theatre. He has been President of the World Congress of Chapel Masters and member of the Vatican Art and Culture Commission for the Holy Year 2000. He published "The voice of the boy singer" (Pauline Editions), "Music Theory and practice of choral singing", "Liber Vespéralis" and "Liber Cantus to Laudes matutinas" of St Peter's Basilica.

Msgr. Colino has directed many concerts in Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Hungary, Germany, Holland, France, Romania, United States of America, Russia and Great Britain and has recorded and published about twenty cds among which the Christmas concerts broadcasted worldwide by the Italian Television in 1989 and 1990, the motets of Cardinal Rafael Merry del Val, the Three Priests with Sony, and the Alma Mater with the Universal-Gefen of London.

1440 S. Priest Drive, Ste. 102 Tempe, AZ 85281-6952
Toll-free: 800.395.2036 | Fax 480.894.5137
www.vatican2festival.org | info@vatican2festival.org