

James C. Mayhew

Department of NC Commander 2008 - 2009

Jim Mayhew was a 20 year Navy veteran 1974-1995. Joined The American Legion at large 20 years ago while still in the Navy in the state of Florida. On active duty he earned an Associate in Science Degree in Professional Aeronautics from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. After moving to Lincolnton, NC in 1995 he transferred to the Department of North Carolina. As Post Commander of Post 30 Lincolnton from 1997-2000 the Post was 100% all four years. Also at the Post level Jim has been Adjutant - 9 years, Finance Officer - 5 years, Oratorical Chairman and Membership Chairman.

On the District and Division level Jim was 100 % District Commander in 2000 and 100% Division Commander in 2003. Also he has been the District Vice-Commander and Oratorical Chairman, Membership Chairman for both the District and Division.

In 2008 Jim was elected as the Department Commander. On the Department level he has been the Oratorical Contest and Education Committee Chairman, Leadership and Development Committee Chairman and most recently has been the Membership, Post Activity, Post Organization, and Revitalization Committee Chairman. Jim has also been a NC Legion College Instructor and the Go-Getter President.

Jim attended the National Legion College in 2001, a program intended for one individual from each Department to participate in a week long learning experience of all aspects of The American Legion. Also on the National level he has been on the National Veterans Preference Committee and the Foreign Relations Council.