

Jeff W. Joyner

Department of North Carolina
National Executive Committeeman

Jeff joined the US Navy in September, 1964, and was discharged in January, 1968 at the rank of TM3(SS). While aboard the USS James Monroe in the North Atlantic and Mediterranean Sea as a launcher technician, and earned his dolphins by qualifying in submarine service.

Jeff has been a member of Rockingham American Legion Post 147 since 1970, having served as post commander and various other post offices; served as district commander; division commander; and Department Commander in 2006-2007. On the National level, he has served on the National Americanism Council, National Foreign Relations Committee, National Public Relations Commission, National Legislative Council, and the National Legislative Commission, Chairman of National Legislative Council, National Alternate Executive Committeeman and currently serving as National Executive Committeeman for the Department of North Carolina.

Jeff is a member of Past Department Commanders Club, ANAVICUS, US Submarine Veterans, VFW, and DAV. He has served as Chairman of the Richmond County Veterans Council, past Chairman of Richmond County Extension Advisory Committee, and currently serving as Chairman of the Richmond County Soil and Water District Supervisors.

Jeff is semi-retired as a salesman in the fertilizer and chemical industry. He serviced area farms as a certified crop advisor by the American Society of Agronomy and is an NC licensed chemical dealer, customer applicator.

Jeff and his wife, Julia, live in Rockingham, NC. They have a son, Johnny (Jenifer), and a daughter Jamie Dickerson (Jason); three grandchildren, Nathan and Annah Dickerson and Andrew Joyner. Julia, Jamie, and Annah are members of the American Legion Auxiliary; Johnny, Nathan and Andrew are members of post 147 SAL; and son-in-law Jason (active duty, US Army) is a member of Rockingham American Legion Post 147.