What are some of the contributing factors of stress and anxiety in today’s society?

If you could teach one thing to the generation before/after you what would it be?

Is a sustainable future possible for humanity?
How does media impact our perceptions of others?

What does it mean to belong?

What will the upcoming election mean for the relationships in your life?

Can belonging be experienced even when you disagree?

Share your feelings without naming candidates or parties.
What would it take for your community to feel whole? Describe it.

What is the role of forgiveness in public life?

What values are important in social media?

When have you seen social media help or hurt someone?

Are there any rules or laws that have affected your sense of security?
Is there a role of punishment in the process of healing?

How do we create an environment that fosters belonging and the courage to speak up?

Do you believe in destiny?

Do you think the generation you were born into can make an impact within your lifetime?
What will the world look like in the future?

Is there a need to "learn to unlearn?"

What moves the world?

Do you believe that most human suffering is self-inflicted?
How can we revolutionize education for the 21st century and beyond?

How has COVID-19 impacted you and your family?

Do you think societies with just one culture are happier?

What makes someone an artist?
What's the most important factor in people's lives?

How can we use stereotypes in a beneficial way?

Is everything relative? Are all problems equally valid? Or, are the problems facing much of the world, such as poverty, the real problems?

Is it important to be a risk taker? Why or why not?
Are we better off today than we were in the past?

Is it possible to know the truth without changing it?

How does "knowing too much" benefit or harm you?

______________?