

POTTERY FOR A CAUSE

SUPPORTING THE UMBRELLA PROJECT

The Umbrella
Project

Hiking Journeys for Grieving Young Adults

Pottery for a Cause, a project of ceramics artist Susan Dwyer, offers handmade pottery to help raise funds for charities. Donations go directly to the charity.

Susan is currently raising funds for the Umbrella Project, a Frederick-based nonprofit which provides hiking journeys for grieving young adults. From April 1 through April 19, lovely pottery pieces of all kinds will be available for sale on Susan's front porch. Pieces will be added during the sale when space allows, so check back for new items. Boxes will be available to pack up your selections, as well as a small box to leave your donation check.

If you prefer, you can also make your donation online directly to the Umbrella Project on their website at umbrellaprojecthike.org.

Pottery location (Dwyer home):
8164 Hunter Trail Court
Frederick, MD
(on front porch)

Questions for Susan?
You can reach her at susandwy@gmail.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT OUR PROGRAM, PLEASE VISIT

UmbrellaProjectHike.org

Our mission is to provide grieving young adults a supported wilderness hiking experience that promotes personal growth, self-reliance and therapeutic recreational activity to help in their healing process.