STATE OF TEXAS

COUNTY OF LEON

I, ROY CARRIGAN, Clerk of the County Court in and for Leon County, Texas do hereby certify that the foregoing two (2) pages are a true and correct copy of a Declaration of Incorporation of the town of Buffalo, Texas, as the same appears in Volume II, Pages 48 & 49 of the Commissioners' Court Minutes of Leon County, Texas.

TO CERTIFY WHICH, witness my hand and seal of office this the 17th day of August A. D., 1902.

Roy Carrigan, County Clerk
Leon County, Texas
February 17th, 1913.

Whereas on the 15th day of December, AD 1912, a petition was presented to L. D. DeWitt, County Judge of Leon County, Texas, asking that an election be ordered to determine whether or not the town of Buffalo, in Leon County, Texas, should be incorporated, under Chapter Forty-four of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, (1911);

And whereas satisfactory proof was made that the territory sought to be incorporated contained the requisite number of inhabitants and that more than twenty qualified voters residing within such territory had affixed their names to said petition, praying for an election to determine whether or not the town of Buffalo should be incorporated as a corporation, the boundaries of said proposed town being described as follows:

And Whereas, in response to the aforesaid petition and in conformity with law our election was ordered to be held in the town of Buffalo Leon County Texas on the 3rd day of February of A.D. 1913 to determine whether or not the inhabitants of the town within the boundaries above described showed W in incorporated; and Whereas, said election was held in conformity with law on said date and the returns there of were forwarded to the County Judge of Leon County Texas and upon being canvassed said returns showed that 53 votes were Cast for Corporation; and 24 votes were Cast No Corporation.

Hence it is not known that the inhabitants of the town of Buffalo, within the above described boundaries, were incor-norated (from the date here of) in accordance with Chapter Fourteen of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas (1914).
