*Our library unfortunately is CLOSED until further notice. Any material out will not be charged over dues as of March 16th and please keep your material at home until closer to May 1st. I had to tape our drop off bin CLOSED for now. Sorry for the inconvenience. Online reading is available by going to the Wheatland website. Watch for updates. Stay safe all.

*On March 14th, we held a Pie Sale to celebrate Pi Day. The community rallied together and donated their homemade pies to the cause. The sale was such a success that they were almost sold out within one hour of starting. The Greek Palace, at the 39-mile corner, graciously donated a free pizza pie for a door prize, which the lucky Warren Cooper won. The support our community gives our wonderful library is hugely appreciated!

THANK YOU NOTES:

Thank you to all my family who planned my 90th birthday party for me on March 7th in the Community Hall, which was beautifully decorated with flowers, pictures, etc.; for the lunch and supper; special family and friends who had to travel like my sisters, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and close friends; for all the cards, flowers, gifts and birthday wishes. I really enjoyed the day. Thanks again for the great day. I love you all.

Emma

It is with grateful hearts that we would like to thank you for all the beautiful cards, donations, telephone calls, words of encouragement, prayers, and condolences during Ron's illness and passing and my recent surgery. Your kind thoughts and words have been very comforting.

Rosemary Moen & families

NOTICES:

 In an effort to prevent the spread of COVID-19 Town Council has made the decision to close the following public buildings until further notice:

Town/RM Office – administrative staff will remain at the office during regular office hours and they will do their best to assist you by telephone (306)255-2313 or email (town.colonsay@sasktel.net)

Fitness Centre – any unused membership fees will be applied to future fees due once the gym reopens

Sports Centre – closed to the public

Community Hall – closed to the public

Colonsay Swimming Pool – closed to the public

Thank you to all members of the community for your cooperation and understanding during this difficult time.

For up-to-date information about COVID-19 please visit the Government of Saskatchewan website at saskatchewan.ca/covid19

 Town Council would like to remind its residents to refrain from flushing paper towels, wipes and feminine hygiene products down the sewer. Placing these items in the sewer system has caused sewer blockages in Town resulting in added expense to taxpayers when service calls are required to remove the blockages.
