MSTA blog

Newest posts include an update on National Punctuation Day and what's next after HB253. Do you have a blog post already written? A question you'd like answered or topic you'd like to see on the blog? Send it to Aurora at ameyer@msta.org.

Check out the Lounge's new look!

The Lounge has a new look complete with new navigation bars! While you're checking out the redesign, don't forget to check out the ongoing conversations in the MSTA Members community such as a lively pension discussion. Not seeing the conversations? You have to be logged in to see and contribute. Hint: Your username is your MSTA member number and your password is your first initial, last initial and home ZIP code.

Convention Registration just nine days away

The MSTA Convention is quickly approaching and updated information is available on our website here. Please note, Oct. 11 is the cut-off date for reservations at the Holiday Inn Exec Center which is the convention headquarters. All workshops are new and relevant to classroom teachers. We planned an exciting night of activities on Thursday evening, make sure you check out the Party in the District information. We look forward to seeing you in Columbia!

Before you attend convention, check out your candidates
